ferral to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD. WASHINGTON, July 18 .- Gov. Cox of Ohio came safely through his conference with President Wilson at the White House to-day, with Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cox's running mate on the Democratic ticket, standing by throughout. The conference was held on the back perch of the White House, starting promptly at half past 10 o'clock and lasting a little more than an hour. The Governor did not visit the White House offices for his conference with her spaper men until considerably later, however. Instead, the three parties to the conference sat down in seclusion and wrote out statements all laying great stress on the complete harmony, but saying little else. The Governor was delayed somewhat, too, by Senator Carter Glass (Va.), late secretary of the Treasury, dropping in to discuss the platform, the convention and the subject of taxation.

When the Governor finally put in an appearance after the conference he Insists Opponent Tell His At- Murphy Decides on Iris Vyavolunteered no information, but merely answered questions. The first thing he was asked about was the League of Nations.

"We discussed the subject in a general way," said the Governor. "The President knows from the statements I have made what my two reserva tions are, and you have his response."

Silent Until His Acceptance.

When he was pinned down to swering whether the President had! approved these reservations, whether the Governor had modified dis views, he said:

Wilson's, Cox's and Roosevelt's Versions of White House Conference on the League

WASHINGTON, July 18 .- Here are the statements of the principals, issued following the meeting of President Wilson, Gov. James M. Cox and Franklin D. Roosevelt to-day:

President Wilson-The interview was in every respect most satisfactory and gratifying. I found what I indeed already knew and what Gov. Cox has let the whole world know in his speeches that he and I were absolutely at one with regard to the great issue of the League of Nations and that he is ready to be the champion in every respect of the honor of the nation and the secure peace of the world. Gov. Cox will have the vigorous support of an absolutely united party, and, I am confident, also of an absolutely united nation.

Gov. James M. Cox-From every viewpoint the meeting was delightful. The President was at his best, recalling any detail inquired about as bearing upon the international situation and enlivening the whole conference with a humorous anecdote now and then in his old time characteristic way. We are agreed as to the meaning and sufficiency of the Democratic platform and the duty of the party in the face of threatened bad faith to the world in the name of America. His thought is still of the war and the pledges we gave to those who sacrificed. One easily sees that as the leader of the nation who asked for our sons and our resources upon a very distinct understanding and obligation he is resolved that the faith shall be kept. To this his thought and life are dedicated. . What he promised I shall, if elected, endeavor with all my strength to give.

Franklin D. Roosevelt-I wish that every American could have been a silent witness to the meeting between these two great men. Their splendid accord and their high purpose are an inspiration. I need only add that my regret in leaving my post under President Wilson is softened by the knowledge that my new commander in chief will be his wholly worthy successor.

Sir Thomas Acts on Advice of Friends-Wise Move, Yachtsmen Say.

A new hand will grip the wheel of Shamrock IV. when Sir Thomas Lipton's Irish challenger for America's Cup goes to the line to-morrow for the start of the third trial in the international yacht races. Giving way before the storm of adverse comment and open criticism that has followed the handling of Shamrock in her first two contests gainst Resolute, the American defender, Sir Thomas Lipton, it became known last night in the Shamrock's camp, has decided to supplant Capt. William P. Burton as the challenger's skipper. Who will replace him has not been decided yet. No announcement regarding Capt. Burton's successor may be made before the yachts start for the stakeboats preparatory to to-morrow's contest. In the speculation last night, however, the names of Charles Nicholson, designer and builder of Shamrock IV.; Col. Duncan F. D. Neill, personal representative of Sir Thomas on board the Shamrock, and Capt. Alfred Diaper, skipper of the twenty-three meter Shamrock, the challenger's trial horse, stood out as those from among whom the Shamrock IV.'s next skipper will be chosen.
